

I am writing in response to the FCC petition to challenge the Indiana Telephone Privacy list.

I am a resident of Indiana.

By calling me at my residence for any unsolicited reason is a violation of my RIGHT TO PRIVACY. Calling me is NOT a right of the banks.

It's ashame that you feel that you have the right to call me and disrupt my peace, even when I request that you don't.

I am on the Indiana Telephone Privacy list for a reason.

Also, any institution that thinks they don't have to respect my wishes will LOSE all my business. Or will NEVER get my business.

I am tired of businesses like you that don't respect the people.

No means NO!
